

1974 Community History Series: Barns and Log Buildings
written by Newspark Team | November 26, 2012

Charlottesville Tomorrow is working with the Albemarle Charlottesville Historical Society to digitize and share their historic audio and video.

The Jefferson Cable Corporation of Charlottesville's television program, Community History Series, continued into 1974. This program features host Bernard Chamberlain interviewing UVA professor of Architecture, K. Edward Lay, about the vernacular barns and log buildings of Albemarle County.
