

Rob Schilling Announces Re-Election Bid

written by Newspark Team | February 22, 2006

Rob Schilling

(R) announced yesterday he will seek re-election to a second term on the Charlottesville City Council.

Charlottesville Tomorrow

, a non-partisan organization, will be covering the May 2, 2006 City Council elections and developing a voter guide focusing on land use, transportation, and community design issues. You can review Charlottesville Tomorrow's coverage of the 2005 Board of Supervisors election

here

.

The

Democratic nominees

will be selected in a mass meeting on Saturday, March 4, 2006, at 1:00 PM in the Burley Middle School Auditorium. Republican nominees will be selected in a mass meeting on Sunday, March 5th. Our calendar

will have the time/place when announced.

Brian Wheeler